Congratulations! You will forever be known as a Donald trump bootlicker. Your name is now forever associated with “buttkisser” and you are now known as an evil person who would rather endanger the public than stand up to a narcissistic sociopath. Hope you’re proud of yourself. I wonder how you can look decent people in the eye. Just resign. Admit what you did. You might be able to gather a shred or two of your lost integrity, if you ever had any.
